(There is no cost to participate!)

Also, the Library Advisory Board is planning to read to 5 preschool classes on Friday, March 1st between 9 am and 9:30 am. Students who want to participate in this activity will be asking permission to leave class during that time. We're hoping teachers will allow them to do this. Last year, it was a great success -- the preschool children loved it! The board members will also be distributing coloring pages and bookmarks.
